

Jean Chesney

Jean Chesney has lived in Brighton since 1995. She and her husband have 3 adult daughters. She has a Master's degree in Gerontology and has spent most of her professional career working with children. She appreciates that God has a great sense of humor. She became involved in homeless services with the REACH rotating shelter program in the 1990s. Since joining St. Mary Magdalen parish in 2016, Jean has volunteered with the Severe Weather Network. She is honored and humbled to have been on the board since April, 2020.
